

SUMMER FUN 2016!

BUGS! Larger than Life sponsored by Sendik's Food Markets

May 28-September 5

Outside Behind the Small Mammals Building

$2.50

Flying, jumping, crawling, swooping and fluttering into the Zoo this summer ... BUGS!

Venture into a backyard like you've never seen before, as 13 animatronic bugs are featured in a lush, outdoor garden. These specially made robotic bugs are 200 times larger than their normal size, and depict all of the same characteristics of their smaller counterparts.

Insects of all shapes and sizes are essential to our natural world, and without them, the ecosystem would collapse. Visit the exhibit to learn and appreciate bugs like never before!

Come see what the buzz is all about!

NEW FACES!

Meet our new red panda, Dr. Erin Curry!

Named after the reproductive physiologist who tracked the pregnancy at the panda's former home, this 9-month old addition is becoming a fan favorite!

Meet her in the outdoor exhibit behind the Florence Mila Borchert Big Cat Country, where she's paired with male red panda, Dash. Dr. Erin Curry is very interested in her new surroundings and her keepers. She can be seen exploring her climbing structures, special enrichment items and even her panda hammock!

The Zoo was pleased to announce the birth of a female reticulated giraffe in late April. Born to first-time mom, Marlee, and dad, Bahatika, our new addition to the herd is settling in nicely.

At birth, this soon-to-be gentle giant stood 5 feet 7 inches tall and weighed 130 pounds! Marlee has proven to be a good mother, showing a calm demeanor and attentiveness to her calf. During the first year of life, giraffes actually double their size in height, so visit the "little one" soon!
